SCHOOL NEWS REPORTERS

Our school is in urgent need of several students to take on the role of News Reporter (Journalist), writing and contributing stories to the School News page on our new school intranet.

Essential requirements:

- An eye, ear and nose for sniffing out interesting news stories about things happening in and around our school
- The ability to write regular short news stories (200 to 250 words only) for submission to the intranet News Page
- The ability to work in a team of journalists to gather information and write great news reports

What you'll get out of it:

- School-wide recognition
- A new and interesting job
- Great career experience
- Maybe "Reporter of the Year"

SCHOOL PHOTO-JOURNALISTS

Our school is in urgent need of several students to take on the role of School Photo-Journalist, taking photos of important sporting, cultural and special events happening at school. These photos will then be used on our school intranet Photo Gallery pages.

Essential requirements:

- Responsible handling of the school's digital cameras and associated equipment
- An eye for what makes a good photograph and the ability to select only the best photos for the school's Photo Gallery
- The ability to write a short story about the photographs you've taken
- The ability to work in a team of photographers and journalists

What you'll get out of it:

- Great photo experience
- School-wide recognition
- "Photographer of the Year"?
